Title: NSS Beach Cleaning Activity at Marve Beach – Report

Date: October 18, 2018

The National Service Scheme (NSS) unit of Atharva College of Hotel Management and Catering Technology (ACHMCT) undertook a meaningful beach cleaning activity at Marve Beach. This initiative aimed to contribute to environmental conservation, raise awareness about the importance of keeping beaches clean, and instil a sense of responsibility among the participating students.

Activities Conducted:

Orientation and Briefing: The event commenced with an orientation and briefing session where NSS coordinators briefed the participants about the significance of beach cleaning and the impact of marine pollution. Safety measures and guidelines for waste disposal were also explained. Participants were organized into teams, each equipped with gloves, trash bags, and other necessary tools. The teams systematically covered designated areas of Marve Beach, collecting litter and waste along the shoreline.

Emphasizing the importance of responsible waste management, participants segregated collected waste into recyclable and non-recyclable categories. The NSS unit actively engaged with the local community, including beach vendors and visitors, to raise awareness about the ongoing beach cleaning activity. Informational pamphlets were distributed to promote a sense of shared responsibility for maintaining a clean environment.

Cleaner Beach Environment: The concerted efforts of NSS volunteers resulted in a visibly cleaner and more aesthetically pleasing Marve Beach. The removal of litter contributed to a healthier coastal ecosystem. The beach cleaning activity instilled a sense of responsibility and environmental stewardship among NSS participants. The hands-on experience encouraged a proactive approach toward maintaining cleanliness in public spaces.

Conclusion: The NSS beach cleaning activity at Marve Beach, undertaken by Atharva College of Hotel Management and Catering Technology, exemplifies the institution's commitment to community service and environmental conservation. The successful event not only resulted in a cleaner beach but also contributed to the education and awareness of participants and the local community. Such initiatives align with the broader goals of NSS and promote a sense of civic responsibility among the student body.

Title: NSS Railway Station Cleaning and Wall Painting Initiative – Report

Date: December 28, 2018

The National Service Scheme (NSS) unit of Atharva College of Hotel Management and Catering Technology (ACHMCT) undertook a transformative community service project at Malad Railway Station. This initiative involved the cleaning of the railway station premises and an artistic enhancement through wall painting. The event took place on [Date].

The NSS coordinators conducted thorough planning and coordination with railway authorities to ensure a systematic and safe execution of the cleaning and wall painting activities at Malad Railway Station. NSS volunteers actively participated in cleaning and sanitizing various areas of the railway station, including platforms, waiting areas, and surrounding spaces. The focus was on the removal of litter, dirt, and ensuring a hygienic environment for commuters.

A dedicated team of NSS volunteers engaged in artistic endeavors by painting vibrant and visually appealing murals on designated walls at the railway station. The themes were carefully chosen to reflect positive messages, cultural diversity, and community spirit.

Community Engagement: The NSS unit actively engaged with railway station staff, commuters, and local residents to create awareness about the importance of cleanliness and the transformative impact of the initiative. Pamphlets were distributed to convey the message effectively.

Post-Clean up Inspection: After the cleaning and wall painting activities were completed, a thorough inspection was conducted to ensure that all areas were properly cleaned and that the wall paintings met the quality standards set by the NSS team.

Outcome: Transformed Railway Station Environment:

The collective efforts of NSS volunteers resulted in a visibly transformed and cleaner Malad Railway Station. The initiative aimed to create a more pleasant and welcoming environment for commuters.

Artistic Beautification: The wall painting project added a touch of creativity to the railway station, enhancing its visual appeal. The colorful murals not only served an aesthetic purpose but also conveyed positive messages to those passing through the station.

Community Awareness: Through community engagement activities, the NSS unit successfully raised awareness about the importance of cleanliness and community participation in maintaining public spaces. Commuters and local residents were actively involved in the initiative.

Sense of Pride: The project instilled a sense of pride among NSS volunteers and the local community. The visible improvements in the railway station's cleanliness and appearance contributed to a positive perception of the space.

Title: Dental Check

Date: 03/12/2020

A dental check-up is an important part of maintaining good oral health, and there are many different oral health and cosmetic complications that a dentist can detect on a routine visit. Dental cleanings are essential for maintaining optimal oral health and function. During these visits, a dental hygienist will clean, polish and floss your teeth to remove hardened plaque, tartar and bacteria. When combined with diligent brushing and flossing at home, dental cleanings help achieve and maintain healthy teeth and gums. It is encouraged that you visit the dentist for a dental check-up once every four to six months.

Title: Eye Check Senior Citizens

Date: 15/12/2021

Although generally regarded as a yearly event, when and how often a person should have their eyes examined depends on factors such as age, general health, risk of eye disease, and other factors. "A baseline screening can help identify signs of eye disease at an early stage when many treatments can have the greatest impact on preserving vision," the organization states. You may need to have your eyes checked more often if you wear glasses and/or contact lenses, have a family history of eye disease, or have a chronic condition such as diabetes that increases your risk of eye problems. Organised Eye check using and free spectacle distribution camp organised by NSS Group at Borivali, Gorai for local residents.

Beyond the Campus

Our institution takes all possible measures in organizing various events and programs for molding the students and staff to become responsible citizens of the country by sensitizing. As responsible citizens of the country the students are motivated towards the constitution where the subject expresses. The students have taken up many cleanliness drives both inside the campus and nearby areas considering it as a responsibility of every citizen. The students have also taken up plantation drive to provide a clean and green environment for all. Swatchh Bharat Abhiyan has also been an important initiative taken up by the college where we have organized an awareness rally for the students and took a tour in entire town to create awareness among all the college has also conducted a 'Awareness Program for the students and were sensitized about their constitution power and routing.'

Our students across all courses study the constitution of India as which sensitizes the student about constitution obligations. Every year Republic Day is celebrated on 26th January organizing activity highlighting the importance of the Indian Constitution. Independence Day is also celebrated each year to highlight the struggle of freedom and the importance of the Indian Constitution.

Respect for National Flag and National Anthem - We organize activities that reinforce constitutional values, rights, duties and responsibilities of students. The Constitution of India designates high values and responsibilities on citizens viz. respect for the National Flag and the National Anthem, uphold and protect the sovereignty, unity and integrity of the country. These objectives are in the focus of our college as the vision and the mission statements emphasize. Every year our college celebrates Republic Day and Independence Day with hoisting of the National flag, singing of National Anthem and devotional songs, taking oath of national integrity.

Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat program - More Initiatives in this direction are – NSS Camp – activities like Nukkad natak, on themes- child protection, Mask distribution – Workshops and seminars organised – Essay writing competition — Plantation and cleanliness drive.

All the drawing material right from the wax colours, pencil colours to drawing books are being provided by the school to the students. We have a 'drop box' kept in each class where the broken colours, half used drawing books, unused craft materials are dumped by the students for disposal.

I was searching for an opportunity to do something different. I thought of giving a try to assemble these children and organize a small workshop using these colours and drawing books. Visit to Dharavli IT park. These little citizens basic English Speaking and writing and Manufacturing of solar cooker workshop was conducted.
