The Fern Hotels marks Earth Day with 1,300+ saplings planted across 60 properties

The Fern Hotels & Resorts marked Earth Day with a tree plantation drive carried out across 60 of its properties in India. Conducted on April 22, the initiative saw the planting of over 1,300 saplings, reinforcing the brand's ongoing focus on environmentally responsible hospitality. Speaking on the initiative, Suhail Kannampilly, Managing Director, The Fern Hotels & Resorts, said: "Sustainability is something we practice every day across our hotels, not just on occasions. This Earth Day, seeing 60 of our properties come together to plant over 1,300 saplings was truly special. It's a simple step"

Inside Nepal's hidden Himalayan retreat

Inside Dwarika's timeless world of heritage, Himalayan stillness and meaningful luxury. Some luxury hotels dazzle with sheer scale and sparkle. Then there are those like The Dwarika's Hotel and Dwarika's Sanctuary in Dhulikhel that linger in your thoughts long after you leave. Our four days spent there felt less like staying in a hotel and more like stepping inside a living museum of Nepal's cultural soul .

Blue Tokai opens its second Origins space in Hyderabad

New flagship format expands the brand's presence in a growing coffee market. Blue Tokai Coffee Roasters launches Blue Tokai Origins at Banjara Hills, making it their second such space in Hyderabad. "Hyderabad is the only city where we've opened two flagships in under six months. People here don't just want a great cup, they want to understand what goes into making one. That curiosity is what makes us want to build here, for the long run," said Shivam Shahi, Co-Founder, Blue Tokai Coffee Roasters. It highlights coffee estates, regional terroirs, and multiple brewing methods as part of its approach.
